PRESS RELEASE # 01

Alvaro Noboa reiterates his invitation to Rafael Correa to debate

Ecuadorian businessman Alvaro Noboa insists that President Rafael Correa accepts his invitation to debate, stressing that the situation in Ecuador requires it and as a result of this, the only winner will be the Ecuadorian people.

"Economist Rafael Correa, the underlying problem is the economic situation and the lack of freedom as a product of your administration, I invite you to debate again. You have the choice to say when and where and I'll be there; come fearlessly, from this debate good solutions will come out to save Ecuador from this situation," said Alvaro Noboa.

Noboa does this before the constant evasion by the Head of State to circumvent the economic reality the country is going through.

Best Regards,
